

Liminal

This is an invitation to participate in a print exchange organized and curated by Camilla Taylor, showing at Kayo Gallery in Salt Lake City, with opening reception March 19, 2010.

Theme: Liminal

Edition size: 36 (20 to exchange, 15 to sell at $20 each (60% to artist, 40% to gallery), and 1 for the archive). You can make more and keep them or have backups if you sell out, but you cannot make less.

Paper size: 6" by 6"

Medium: Traditional printmaking media (serigraphy, relief, lithography, intaglio). Other media may be paired with a traditional printmaking technique.

Due date: March 1st, 2010 to Camilla or Kayo Gallery.

Each participant will receive a portfolio with a random assortment of 20 prints.

Edition size and medium are nonnegotiable. You can get weird with the paper size, or use something instead of paper if you want, but there must be at least 36 and it must be a print. You can also make more than one print, just make sure you finish and turn in your first one before starting on the second. Do not sell any copies of the print until the show at Kayo is over.

Exchanges are the best time to outdo yourself and making something amazing. At least 20 people will get one of your prints, and you should do your best to make sure that they really want to have it, that it's a print people want to have and not one that they dread showing up in their portfolio. Make the print that people specially request they get, not the one people specially request they don't get. It's an easy way to introduce yourself and impress to 20 other artists with how wonderful you are. Though I've rejected very few prints in the past, this is a curated show, so making a print doesn't necessarily mean you'll be included.

Please email me at Camilla.a.taylor@gmail.com with any questions. Check out Kayogallery.com for pictures of previous exchanges.
